

My Library Story--Canton

Hello my name is Lt. Rosado. I frequently visit Canton Public Library because it is conveniently located and it has a vast collection of reference material that I use to help me with my theological studies. The staff is always cordial and helpful in pointing me in the direction of additional material that has always been beneficial to my studies. If this library was to be moved or closed I would greatly miss it and its staff.